MHC After 3 provides after-school programming to middle and high school students in Martinsville-Henry County. The hours between 3-6 p.m. are critical to the success of students and research shows that students who go somewhere after school are successful. Parents and students in Martinsville-Henry County helped to create programming to foster students culturally, intellectually, and physically. MHC After 3 uses the Triple A model (Arts, Athletics, and Academics) to give students what they want.

MHC After 3 is funded by the 21st Century Community Learning Centers grants and has been serving students since 2006. In the Martinsville and Henry County area, MHC After 3 enriches the lives of hundreds of students annually through high quality out of school time programs at no cost to families in the community. Our programs serve middle and high schools students through a variety of professionally mentored arts, academics, athletics and personal development programs, supportive community partnerships, and meaningful mentor relationships.

Currently MHC After 3 serves students enrolled in Martinsville and Henry County Public Schools. Middle school students from Laurel Park Middle School and Fieldale Collinsville Middle School. The high school program serves Bassett High School, Magna Vista High School, and Martinsville High School .
